

8:00AM - 8:30AM	Registrations, tea and coffee
8:30AM - 8:40AM	Acknowledgement & Welcome to country
8:40AM - 9:00AM	Welcome & Opening Address: Helen McCarthy Director Of Nursing & Midwifery
9:00AM - 10:00AM	Keynote Address - Associate Professor Elisabeth Murphy: Antenatal Care from a Child Health perspective
10:00AM - 10:30AM	Karen Kumar (Hicksons Lawyers): Ten years on - the rise of disciplinary complaints
10:30AM - 11:00AM	Morning Tea and visit trade displays
11:00AM - 12:00PM	Professor Nadia Badawi, AM, Cathy Morgan and consumer: Ten years of early detection and early intervention in Cerebral Palsy
12:00PM - 12:30PM	Dr Amanda Lazzaro: Cytomegalovirus (CMV): Raising Awareness
12:30PM - 1:15PM	Lunch and visit trade displays
1:15PM - 2:00PM	Keynote: Professor Sally Tracy: Ten hot topics to consider
2:00PM - 2:30PM	Louise Everitt, Amanda Reilly, Maria Bulmer: Disclosures and responses to Domestic Violence - What a difference a decade makes
2:30PM - 3:00PM	Margaret Martin: Soft skills for hard conversations
3:00PM - 3:30PM	Kate Dyer: Perinatal Loss: creating positive memories
3:30PM - 3:50PM	Sankalpa Meditation
3:50PM - 4:00PM	Closing Remarks

Venue: Royal Hospital for Women, Lecture Theatre, Level 1, Barker Street, Randwick 2031

6 Professional Development Points awarded

Parking: Pay parking available on site $28 per day

Buses to Randwick Junction: check website www.sydneybuses.info or call 131500 as due to light rail construction bus stop locations have changed www.sydneybuses.info or call 131 500

Local accommodation information available upon request

Enquiries: Anne Lainchbury on 0407 498 197 or email anne.lainchbury@health.nsw.gov.au

SPEAKER PROFILES

Professor Sally Tracy is

Professor of Midwifery at The University of Sydney and Conjoint Professor, School of Women's and Children's Health, Faculty of Medicine, UNSW. She has experience in implementing and evaluating primary level maternity units and caseload midwifery care for all risk women.

Louise Everitt, Amanda Reilly and Maria Bulmer work at St George Public Hospital. Louise is the CMC for complex Midwifery care, Honorary associate at UTS, specialising and working extensively in working with vulnerable women. Most recently she has been developing simulation training for midwives within the domestic violence and psychosocial emotional screening space. Amanda Reilly CMC for Risk and Practice Development, has extensive experience within models of care within maternity and development of practice change across all areas. Maria Bulmer MUM Birthing Services is passionate about ensuring her Birthing services provides holistic care encompassing all vulnerabilities of women.

Professor Nadia Badawi, AM, is a Neonatologist and Medical Director of the Grace Centre for Newborn Intensive Care at Westmead Childrens' Hospital. Professor Badawi is an expert on newborn encephalopathy and cerebral palsy and is the Macquarie Foundation Chair of Cerebral Palsy at the Cerebral Palsy Alliance Research Institute.

Margaret Martin has a background in Midwifery and Nursing and is the SESLHD N&M Manager for Practice & Workplace Capabilities. An experienced facilitator and educator, she leads a small team who aim to make a difference to the care women and patients receive by supporting and developing clinicians and leaders.

Kate Dyer, AM, is the Clinical Midwife Consultant, High Risk Pregnancy Coordinator, Midwifery Group Practice/Maternal-Fetal Medicine at the Royal Hospital for Women. Kate coordinates the provision of care and education to women following the diagnosis of fetal anomaly or when there are significant medical problems complicating a woman's pregnancy.

Karen Kumar is a partner with the Health Law Team at Hicksons Lawyers. Hicksons Lawyers are a panel firm appointed by the NSW MoH. Karen is an insurance lawyer with nearly 20 years experience specialising in the health sector including defending medical negligence claims and appearing at coronial investigations and inquests. Prior to studying law, Karen worked as a registered nurse.

Associate Professor Elisabeth Murphy is the Senior Clinical Advisor, Child and Family Health, NSW Ministry of Health and an expert in child health whose medical career has been devoted to ensuring the best possible health outcomes for children and families. Elisabeth has overseen the implementation of a number of early intervention programs designed to lead to improved health throughout life. Concurrent with her Ministry role, A/Prof Murphy works in Northern Sydney LHD as Network Director for Child, Youth and Family Services and also has an academic role as Discipline Head of Child Health at the University of Notre Dame

Dr Amanda Lazzaro MBBS MPH is a 4th year Obstetrics and Gynaecology registrar at The Royal Hospital for Women. She has been collaborating with others to raise awareness of CMV and its implications

